

THE SCOTTISH ASSOCIATION FOR THE STUDY OF OFFENDING

Scottish Association for the Study of Offending

Edinburgh Branch

Invites you to attend a public lecture on Tuesday 7 February 2017 at 5.30pm

by

Chief Superintendent Kenny Macdonald, Police Scotland

entitled

“Crime and policing in Edinburgh”

at

Edinburgh Sheriff Court, Chambers Street, Edinburgh

Chief Superintendent Macdonald is the Divisional Commander for Edinburgh and his lecture will provide some background to the challenges currently facing policing in Edinburgh, including how the division is structured, what the latest crime trends are and what has been done to combat these trends.

It will also concentrate on the 2026 project and the future of policing in Scotland and the challenges that will be faced in achieving long-term sustainability in the policing and protection of Edinburgh and its occupants.

This is an open meeting, free to all with an interest in crime and criminal justice.

1½ hours of CPD time may be claimed by Advocates, Solicitors and Social Workers.

Registration at the event will be required for the first two professions.

You do not need to be a member of SASO to attend.
