Role of the Police Investigation & Review Commission

Commissioner Michelle Macleod

The PIRC was introduced in 2013 when the single Police Service of Scotland was established. The role of the PIRC is to provide independent oversight, investigating incidents involving policing bodies and reviewing the way the police handle complaints from the public. The Commissioner, Michelle Macleod, will provide an overview of the role and purpose of the PIRC; its functions and responsibilities; examples of the type of cases it deals with and how it makes a difference to policing in Scotland.

Members and non-members alike are welcome.

Solicitors & Advocates, Police and Social Workers and other professions may claim CPD time for attendance at SASO lectures - registration at the event will be required.

Please communicate any enquiries regarding the presentation or SASO in general to:

Sarah Ferguson / Nicola Youngson, Branch Secretaries

E-mail: s.ferguson7@rgu.ac.uk / n.j.youngson@rgu.ac.uk

The COSTA Coffee Shop is open in the Sir Ian Wood Building until 8pm.

The aim of SASO is to bring together people with a wide range of experience in the criminal justice system so that by listening, talking and sharing experience, a better understanding of our common problems will develop.
