Annabel Turner, Cybersafe Scotland: Understanding and Disrupting the Financially Motivated Sexual Extortion of Children

www.Facebook.com/cybersafescot

Annabel is the Director of Cybersafe Scotland. She practised as a barrister in cases involving child abuse before working with the International Justice Mission on their "Not on My Screen Campaign" to end Online Child Sexual Exploitation and Abuse. She founded Cybersafe Scotland, a not-for-profit organisation which provides services aimed at reducing online abuse, harassment and exploitation and providing wider support around digital safety. She chairs the Child Exploitation Group for Aberdeen Child Protection Committee and works as an advisor for other organisations and projects on these issues. She is passionate about defending children's rights and bringing others together to support children online.

Members and non-members alike are welcome.

Solicitors & Advocates, Police and Social Workers and other professions may claim CPD time for attendance at SASO lectures - registration at the event will be required.

Please communicate any enquiries regarding the presentation or SASO in general to:

Sarah Ferguson / Nicola Youngson, Branch Secretaries

E-mail: s.ferguson7@rgu.ac.uk / n.j.youngson@rgu.ac.uk

The COSTA Coffee Shop is open in the Sir Ian Wood Building until 8pm.

The aim of SASO is to bring together people with a wide range of experience in the criminal justice system so that by listening, talking and sharing experience, a better understanding of our common problems will develop.
